

Amazing insect facts

- There are over 6,000,000 species of insect in the world!!
- Insects have 3 body parts, 6 legs and 2 antennae.
- Insects are invertebrates, which mean they have no backbone.

Hawthorn Shieldbug  This bug feeds on fruits and leaves of Hawthorn and other trees	Common Green Shieldbug  The Green Shieldbug produces a nasty smell if frightened!	Bishop's Mitre Shieldbug  Look for this bug in rough, grassy places
Common Carder Bee  This bee has a long tongue and can reach deep into a flower to feed.	Red-tailed Bumble Bee  These bees nest underground	Buff-tailed Bumble Bee  The buff tailed bumble bee has black and lemon-yellow bands and a white 'tail'.
Great green bush-cricket  This can grow up to 7 centimetres long and can give a nasty nip, so best to look but not touch!	Speckled bush-cricket  Although they have wings they can't fly but use their back legs to jump.	Field grasshopper  These come in different colours including pink!

